Women as Career Coaches (WACC)

Date and Time: Thursday, April 9 5:15 pm - 9:00 pm

Address: Burlington Convention Centre, 1120 Burloak Drive, Burlington, L7L 6P8

For over 20 years, Women as Career Coaches (WACC) has brought together thousands of youth and mentors from the Halton Region and beyond to engage in informal conversation, listen to a line-up of inspiring spotlight speakers, and participate in panel discussions about various career pathways.

This empowering evening is designed to provide the next generation with the opportunity to discover a wide range of potential career paths. Youth thrive when surrounded by strong adult role models who help create an evening of support and empowerment as they navigate the professional world. Mentors and career coaches from various professions ssions, post-secondary pathways, and education levels are invited to speak to attendees.

Together, we can inspire youth to feel confident and optimistic about their futures and their place in the world of work.

Other Information:

Have some words of wisdom?

Register to be a Career Coach!

Your story can help the young people you meet at Women as Career Coaches as they begin to think about their future. Everyone has a story about their career path – even if that journey is still in progress. By joining us as a Career Coach, you can share your experience and advice with a group of youth exploring potential career paths.
