Robyn Ottolini makes music that will either piss you off or make you fall in love with her. Maybe a little bit of both. Raised in a small town outside of Toronto called Uxbridge, Ottolini has been treating songwriting like a diary since the age of 13. Her massive hit 'F-150' was a raw and relatable anthem that connected with a global audience of fans who sent the song to #4 on the Spotify US Viral 50 chart and #3 on Rolling Stone's All Genre Trending chart. Robyn's music ain't 3 chords and the truth, it's 3 chords and her truth. In every song you're gonna hear a first-hand account of what it's like to grow up, screw up, and straighten up. Whether you're listening alone in your car or sharing a moment with 20,000 of your friends, Robyn's probably gonna make you laugh and she might make you cry, but she'll always be singing her truth.

No tickets required. All ages are welcome. Parking is free.
