Both audio and video

- Please describe the issue you intend to present:

A change in the zoning by-law would negatively affect the surrounding neighbourhood

Allowing a Highschool to operate at this location will disrupt many residents, families and young children

- Please describe specific actions you want Council to take:

Asking the Town of Milton for their support to not allow the change in the zoning by-law for this location

Please keep this school an Elementary School for young children and families as planned and intended for the community

- Please provide your comments in support of or in opposition to the staff recommendation:

Please see attached document to present to Town Council

Online Petition has been signed with over 400 residents and parents against this change

Major congestion, traffic and safety concerns

No public transit available yet to/from the school

Whitlock Bridge not ready yet - only 1 entrance to Whitlock from Thompson or must drive through residential roads via Logan Dr. entrance

Proximity to surrounding homes – Noise and loitering concerns

Parking – 4 to 2.4 parking spaces means more on street parking and congestion

671 students and families will now have to find a school outside of their neighbourhood

Are we losing the badly needed daycare centre? Or will highschool students be sharing same building?

Very young kindergarten and early grade students to be bussed and no guaranteed alternate school or timeline

No school within walking distance

Summary:

A change in the zoning by-law would negatively affect the surrounding neighbourhood

Allowing a Highschool to operate at this location will disrupt many residents, families and young children

Asking the Town of Milton for their support to not allow the change in the zoning by-law for this location
