- Please indicate how you intend to interact with the online Council Meeting
Both audio and video
- Please describe the issue you intend to present:
They are making the school at the corner of Whitlock and Kennedy circle that was supposed to be an elementary school as proposed when we moved and is now being used as originally proposed 1 year temporary high school and now 2 year temporary location. There is no schools in our area, high school students have the means to walk or bike further distances but these kids can't walk that far. A majority of our area is all young children and should be designated as a elementary school
- Please describe specific actions you want Council to take:
Change the originally proposed temporary location for a school originally 1 year and now 2 years but this needs to be an elementary school children aren't able to walk those distances while a high school child is old enough to walk away or bike on their own
- Please provide your comments in support of or in opposition to the staff recommendation:
If you acquired a census I can assure you a majority of the households around her have children under the age of 12 and more than half in the 5-8 year old range
- Do you give your permission to be audio and video recorded on the Town of Milton's live Council meeting stream?
